Republicans Promise Committee of Won Miss Goldman's 66-Year-Old Another Sweep by Brooklyn's 100 to Indorse His Canvass.

the Meeting of Feb. 5.

The Committee of One Hundred, which did such active work in Brooklyn at the last campaign, convened at 193 Montague street this morning and nominated A. C. Fisher, of 163 Twenty-third street, as the candidate for Supervisor for the special election ordered by Gov. Flower to be held in the Eight Ward Feb. 28. Immediately after the nomination of Mr. Fischer a delegation of the com-

Buttling and Supervisor-at-Large Fitchie and were assured that the candidate and were assured that the candidate would be ratified and indorsed by the Republicans of the Eighth Ward.

Mr. Fischer is a Democrat, and has always been identified with the party. He was Vice-President of the Democratic Ward Association last year, but left the ranks to work for Mayor Schieren. He is in the distilling business.

It is likely that the small faction of Republicans in the Eighth Ward led by Cadmus will object to Mr. Fischer's nomination. They placed Linde in the Field to succeed Kehoe in the face of a howl of indignation from the Republicans in the ward.

Politicians think there may be three candidates in the field. The certificates of the nomination of Charles Krombach, who was placed in the field at the Democratic primary of the Eighth Ward last night, was filed with the County Clerk to-day.

Counsellor John H. Kemble, represent-night, was fifed with the County Clerk to-day.

Counsellor John H. Kemble, representing Supervisor John McKeown, obtained in order from Justice Cullen, in the Superme Court, Brooklyn, to-day, requiring Supervisor-at-Large Thomas Fitche and the Board of Supervisors of Kings County to show cause Feb. 12 why the proseedings of the Board on Feb. 5 should not be declared a nullity.

Krombach is a popular German florist, Df the 378 votes cast, he received 377 and George Kehoe, the present de facto Supervisor received one.

It is claimed that Supervisor Linde, of the Eighth Ward, has no legal right to a seat in the Board, and that at the meeting of Feb. 5 there was no quorum present. This was the meeting at which President pro tem. John Y. McKane and Clerks Farrell and Dowden were deposed.

An Instance of Commercial Enterprine.

(From the Philadelphia Times.)

A striking instance of commercial enterprise is the buying of the entire stock of dry goods belonging to the dissoived firm of Wellington & Co., of this city, by the house of Bloomingdale Bros. New York. The promptness with which the goods were acquired was only squalled by the celerity with which they were transferred to New York. The purchasers chartered a special freight train and sent over fifty men, who soon had the whole stock packed and on board the cars.

His Assailant Got $300, but No His Watch and Chain.

Thomas J. Taggart, a well-to-do saoon-keeper of 20 Flushing avenue, Brooklyn, rushed breathlessly into the Adams street police station at 1 o'clock this morning and said he had been knocked slown by an unknown man a few minutes before he came to the station and robbed of $300 in money. He told Capt. Campbell that he was atacked on the corner of Concord and Bridge streets, and that his assailant and taken a roll of bills from his waist-session his gold watch and chain and $9.43 in change. He was locked up, and Detective Dolan was detailed to investigate his story.

Dolan learned from Mrs. Taggart that her husband had left home early in the evening with at least $200 in his pockets. At midnight he entered McKenna's saloon at Concord and Bridge streets. There was a crowd in front of the bar.

Taggart was then in a joily mood and offered to buy drinks for several men in the party. He displayed a large roll of bills when he paid for the drinks.

Some time afterwards he started to go home. A man who had been in the saloon followed him outside.

Taggart alleges that he was attacked immediately after leaving the saloon. The bartender, however, says that he did not hear any scuffle.

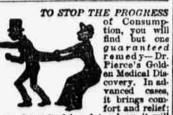

Detective Dolan found two hats in the gutter, one of which belonged to Taggart. Capt. Campbell is satisfied that the man's story is true and the detectives are still looking for his assailant.

MRS. BAER SAVED HER LOVER Removed the Cartridges from Her

He Snapped the Weapon Five Times at the Fleeing Man.

NEWARK, Feb. 8.-The testimon aken before as pecial master of chancery in the suit of Jacob D. Baer, wealthy brewer, for a divorce from his wife, Lillie Baer, reveals a startling scene that occurred in the Baaer home 29 Filmore street, last eptember.

The Baers have been married but short time. Mr. Baer was obliged by short time. Mr. Baer was obliged by business to remain out all night frequently and on Sept. 2 told his wife he would not be home until morning. He came home unexpectedly, however, and found another man in his place.

Mrs. Baer, it is said, prevented her husband from attacking her paramour by throwing herself in Baer's arms. The fugitive escaped through a window to a vacant lot in the rear. In the meantime Baer got his revolver and snapped it five times in trying to shoot the fleeing man. He afterwards learned his wife had removed the cartridges. Mrs. Baer has since disappeared.
